

PORTLAND MARKETS

Latest Quotations in the Portland Produce Markets.

Complete Market Reports Corrected Each Day Giving the Wholesale Prices of Commodities, Farm Produce and Vegetables.

Portland, Aug. 9.—City creameries have advanced their best grades of butter to 27 1/2 cents, while fancy creamery is quoted on Front street at 25 cents straight. The continuance of the warm, dry weather tends to lessen the production of cream from day to day, and the quantity of butter now produced in Oregon only affords for daily needs.

Good tomatoes are scarce, though there are quantities of inferior grades on the market.

Sales of a number of coops were made on Front street yesterday afternoon at 1-2 cent to 1 cent under the present quotations. There is little demand for old ducks and geese, and those shipped in this week are likely to be kept on hand several days.

Eggs are not selling as well as commission men would like, and they think the continued warm weather has something to do with lack of demand.

Large quantities of watermelons are coming from Lodi, Cal., and casabas are reaching this city from Fresno.
